GENERAL

Type of organisation

- 1 The organisation will, upon registration, be a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO).

Scottish principal office

- 2 The principal office of the organisation will be in Scotland (and must remain in Scotland).

Name

- 3 The name of the organisation is Edinburgh School Uniform Bank

Purposes

- 4 The Edinburgh School Uniform Bank aims to:
 - 4.1 Support initiatives to relieve child poverty in families experiencing financial hardship in Edinburgh, particularly in areas of high deprivation; (Charitable Purpose a.)
 - 4.2 Support the advancement of education of children and young people facing socio-economic and cultural deprivation, in primary or secondary state education in Edinburgh. (Charitable Purpose b.)
 - 4.3 Protect and support the mental health and well-being of children and young people in primary or secondary state education in Edinburgh (Charitable Purposes d. & n.)
 - 4.4 The advancement of environmental protection or improvement by reducing the amount of used school uniform going to landfill. (Charitable Purpose m.)

By providing new and good quality used school uniforms and any other essential items deemed to be necessary to meet the cost of the school day.

Powers

- 5 The organisation has power to do anything which is calculated to further its purposes or is conducive or incidental to doing so, including:

- 5.1 Collect donations of both new and good quality used school uniforms and any other essential items deemed to be necessary to meet the cost of the school day;
 - 5.2 Liaise with other organisations;
 - 5.3 Rent, lease or buy premises from which to operate the organisation;
 - 5.4 Employ staff to carry out the aims of the organisation;
 - 5.5 Recruit and train local volunteers to carry out the aims of the organisation;
 - 5.6 Raise funds to be used to carry out the aims of the organisation;
 - 5.7 Publicise and promote the service and the organisation;
 - 5.8 Pay professional advisers as necessary.
- 6 No part of the income or property of the organisation may be paid or transferred (directly or indirectly) to the members - either in the course of the organisation's existence or on dissolution - except where this is done in direct furtherance of the organisation's charitable purposes.

Liability of members

- 7 The members of the organisation have no liability to pay any sums to help to meet the debts (or other liabilities) of the organisation if it is wound up; accordingly, if the organisation is unable to meet its debts, the members will not be held responsible.
- 8 The members and charity trustees have certain legal duties under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and clause 7 does not exclude (or limit) any personal liabilities they might incur if they are in breach of those duties or in breach of other legal obligations or duties that apply to them personally.

General structure

- 9 The structure of this two-tier organisation consists of:
 - 9.1 the MEMBERS - who have the right to attend members' meetings (including any annual general meeting) and have important powers under the constitution; in particular, the members appoint people to serve on the board and take decisions on changes to the constitution itself;
 - 9.2 the BOARD - who hold regular meetings, and generally control the activities of the organisation; for example, the board is responsible for monitoring and controlling the financial position of the organisation.
- 10 The people serving on the board are referred to in this constitution as CHARITY TRUSTEES.

MEMBERS

Qualifications for membership

- 11 Membership is open to any individual aged 16 or over with an interest in children in families in Edinburgh who are experiencing financial hardship.
- 12 Employees of the organisation are not eligible for membership.

Application for membership

- 13 Any person who wishes to become a member must sign a written application for membership; the application will then be considered by the board at its next board meeting or agreed through a written resolution of the board.
- 14 The board may, at its discretion, refuse to admit any person to membership or to renew any person's term of membership.
- 15 The board must notify each applicant promptly (in writing or by e-mail) of its decision on whether or not to admit him/her to membership or to renew his/her term of membership.

Membership subscription

- 16 No membership subscription will be payable.

Register of members

- 17 The board must keep a register of members, setting out
 - 17.1 for each current member:
 - 17.1.1 his/her full name and address; and
 - 17.1.2 the date on which he/she was registered as a member of the organisation;
 - 17.2 for each former member - for at least six years from the date on he/she ceased to be a member:
 - 17.2.1 his/her name; and
 - 17.2.2 the date on which he/she ceased to be a member.
- 18 The board must ensure that the register of members is updated within 28 days of any change:
 - 18.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
 - 18.2 which is notified to the organisation.

- 19 If a member or charity trustee of the organisation requests a copy of the register of members, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a member (rather than a charity trustee), the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out.

Withdrawal from membership

- 20 Any person who wants to withdraw from membership must give a written notice of withdrawal to the organisation, signed by him/her; he/she will cease to be a member as from the time when the notice is received by the organisation.

Transfer of membership

- 21 Membership of the organisation may not be transferred by a member.

Re-registration of members

- 22 The board may, at any time, issue notices to the members requiring them to confirm that they wish to remain as members of the organisation, and allowing them a period of 28 days (running from the date of issue of the notice) to provide that confirmation to the board.
- 23 If a member fails to provide confirmation to the board (in writing or by e-mail) that he/she wishes to remain as a member of the organisation before the expiry of the 28-day period referred to in clause 22, the board may expel him/her from membership.
- 24 A notice under clause 22 will not be valid unless it refers specifically to the consequences (under clause 23) of failing to provide confirmation within the 28-day period.

Expulsion from membership

- 25 Any person may be expelled from membership by way of a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of those present and voting at a members' meeting, providing the following procedures have been observed:-
- 25.1 at least 21 days' notice of the intention to propose the resolution must be given to the member concerned, specifying the grounds for the proposed expulsion;
- 25.2 the member concerned will be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the members' meeting at which the resolution is proposed.

Termination

- 26 Membership of the organisation will terminate on the sooner of:
- 26.1 one year from the date on which the board admits any person to membership or renews any person's membership. Members may apply to renew their membership for another one-year term, with no limits to the number of terms;
- 26.2 the death of the member.

DECISION-MAKING BY THE MEMBERS

Members' meetings

- 27 The board must arrange a meeting of members (an annual general meeting or "AGM") in each calendar year.
- 28 The gap between one AGM and the next must not be longer than 15 months.
- 29 Notwithstanding clause 27, an AGM does not need to be held during the calendar year in which the organisation is formed; but the first AGM must still be held within 15 months of the date on which the organisation is formed.
- 30 The business of each AGM must include:-
- 30.1 a report by the chair on the activities of the organisation;
 - 30.2 consideration of the annual accounts of the organisation;
 - 30.3 the election/re-election of charity trustees, as referred to in clauses 59 to 62.
- 31 The board may arrange a special members' meeting at any time.

Power to request the board to arrange a special members' meeting

- 32 The board must arrange a special members' meeting if they are requested to do so by a notice (which may take the form of two or more documents in the same terms, each signed by one or more members) by members who amount to 5% or more of the total membership of the organisation at the time, providing:
- 32.1 the notice states the purposes for which the meeting is to be held; and
 - 32.2 those purposes are not inconsistent with the terms of this constitution, the Charities and Trustee (Investment) Scotland Act 2005 or any other statutory provision.
- 33 If the board receive a notice under clause 32, the date for the meeting which they arrange in accordance with the notice must not be later than 28 days from the date on which they received the notice.

Notice of members' meetings

- 34 At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of any AGM or any special members' meeting.
- 35 The notice calling a members' meeting must specify in general terms what business is to be dealt with at the meeting; and
- 35.1 in the case of a resolution to alter the constitution, must set out the exact terms of the proposed alteration(s); or

- 35.2 in the case of any other resolution falling within clause 45 (requirement for two-thirds majority) must set out the exact terms of the resolution.
- 36 The reference to “clear days” in clause 34 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice,
- 36.1 the day after the notices are posted (or sent by e-mail) should be excluded; and
- 36.2 the day of the meeting itself should also be excluded.
- 37 Notice of every members' meeting must be given to all the members of the organisation, and to all the charity trustees; but the accidental omission to give notice to one or more members will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 38 Any notice which requires to be given to a member under this constitution must be: -
- 38.1 sent by post to the member, at the address last notified by him/her to the organisation; or
- 38.2 sent by e-mail to the member, at the e-mail address last notified by him/her to the organisation.
- 39 If members and charity trustees are to be permitted to participate in a members' meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) (see clause 40), the notice (or notes accompanying the notice) must:
- 39.1 set out details of how to connect and participate via that link or links; and
- 39.2 (particularly for the benefit of those members who may have difficulties in using a computer or laptop for this purpose) draw members' attention to the following options:
- 39.2.1 participating in the meeting via an audio link accessed by phone, using dial-in details (if that forms part of the arrangements);
- 39.2.2 (where attendance in person is to be permitted, either on an open basis or with a restriction on the total number who will be permitted to attend) attending and voting in person at the meeting;

Procedure at members' meetings

- 40 The board may if they consider appropriate (and must, if this is required under clause 41) make arrangements for members and charity trustees to participate in members' meetings by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) which allow them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting, providing:
- 40.1 the means by which members and charity trustees can participate via that link or links are not subject to technical complexities, significant costs or other factors which are likely to represent - for all or a significant proportion of the membership - a barrier to participation;

- 40.2 the notice calling the meeting (or notes accompanying the notice) contains the information required under clause 39; and
- 40.3 the manner in which the meeting is conducted ensures, so far as reasonably possible, that those members and charity trustees who participate via an audio or audio-visual link are not disadvantaged with regard to their ability to contribute to discussions at the meeting, as compared with those members and charity trustees (if any) who are attending in person (and vice versa).
- 41 If restrictions arising from public health legislation or guidance are likely to mean that attendance in person at a proposed members' meeting would not be possible or advisable for all or a significant proportion of the membership, the board must make arrangements for members and charity trustees to participate in that members' meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) which allow them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting; and on the basis that the requirements set out in clause 40 will apply.
- 42 A members' meeting may involve two or more members or charity trustees participating via attendance in person while other members and/or charity trustees participate via audio and/or audio-visual links; or it may involve participation solely via audio and/or audio-visual links.
- 43 A members' meeting cannot start unless a quorum is present. The quorum for a members' meeting is a majority of the charity members, present in person.
- 44 An individual participating in a members' meeting via an audio or audio-visual link which allows them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting will be deemed to be present in person (or, if they are not a member, will be deemed to be in attendance) at the meeting.
- 45 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a members' meeting was due to start - or if a quorum ceases to be present during a members' meeting - the meeting cannot proceed; and fresh notices of meeting will require to be sent out, to deal with the business (or remaining business) which was intended to be conducted.
- 46 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each members' meeting.
- 47 If the chair of the organisation is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

Voting at members' meetings

- 48 Every member has one vote, which must be given personally (subject to clause 53).
- 49 All decisions at members' meetings will be made by majority vote - with the exception of the types of resolution listed in clause 50.
- 50 The following resolutions will be valid only if passed by not less than two thirds of those voting on the resolution at a members' meeting (or if passed by way of a written resolution under clause 57):
- 50.1 a resolution amending the constitution;
 - 50.2 a resolution expelling a person from membership under clause 25;
 - 50.3 a resolution directing the board to take any particular step (or directing the board not to take any particular step);
 - 50.4 a resolution approving the amalgamation of the organisation with another SCIO (or approving the constitution of the new SCIO to be constituted as the successor pursuant to that amalgamation);
 - 50.5 a resolution to the effect that all of the organisation's property, rights and liabilities should be transferred to another SCIO (or agreeing to the transfer from another SCIO of all of its property, rights and liabilities);
 - 50.6 a resolution for the winding up or dissolution of the organisation.
- 51 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 52 A resolution put to the vote at a members' meeting will be decided on a show of hands - unless the chairperson (or at least two other members present at the meeting) ask for a secret ballot.
- 53 Where members are participating in a meeting via an audio or audio-visual link, they may cast their votes on any resolution orally, or by way of some form of visual indication, or by use of a voting button or similar, or by way of a message sent electronically - and providing the board have no reasonable grounds for suspicion as regards authenticity, any such action shall be deemed to be a vote cast personally via a show of hands.
- 54 The chairperson will decide how any secret ballot is to be conducted, and he/she will declare the result of the ballot at the meeting.
- 55 Where members are participating in a meeting via audio and/or audio-visual links, the chairperson's directions regarding how a secret ballot is to be conducted may allow those members to cast their votes on the secret ballot via any or all of the methods referred to in clause 53, providing reasonable steps are taken to preserve anonymity (while at the same time, addressing any risk of irregularities in the process).

Technical objections to remote participation in members' meetings

- 56 This constitution imposes certain requirements regarding the use of audio and/or audio-visual links as a means of participation and voting at members' meetings; providing the arrangements made by the board in relation to a given members' meeting (and the manner in which the meeting is conducted) are consistent with those requirements:
- 56.1 a member cannot insist on participating in the members' meeting, or voting at the members' meeting, by any particular means;
 - 56.2 the members' meeting need not be held in any particular place;
 - 56.3 the members' meeting may be held without any particular number of those participating in the meeting being present in person at the same place (but, notwithstanding that, the quorum requirements - taking account of those participating via audio and/or audio-visual links - must still be met);
 - 56.4 the members' meeting may be held by any means which permits those participating in the meeting to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting;
 - 56.5 a member will be able to exercise the right to vote at the members' meeting (including where a secret ballot is to be held) by such means as is determined by the chairperson of the meeting (consistent with the arrangements made by the board) and which permits that member's vote to be taken into account in determining whether or not a resolution is passed.

Written resolutions by members

- 57 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by all the members will be as valid as if it had been passed at a members' meeting; the date of the resolution will be taken to be the date on which the last member agreed to it.

Minutes

- 58 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all members' meetings.
- 59 Minutes of members' meetings must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 60 The board shall make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 58 to any member of the public requesting them; but on the basis that the board may exclude confidential material to the extent permitted under clause 116.

BOARD

Number of charity trustees

- 61 The maximum number of charity trustees is twelve (12).
- 62 The minimum number of charity trustees is four (4).

Eligibility

- 63 A person shall not be eligible for election/appointment to the board under clauses 65 to 69 unless he/she is a member of the organisation; a person appointed to the board under clause 70 need not, however, be a member of the organisation.
- 64 A person will not be eligible for election or appointment to the board if he/she is: -
- 64.1 disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or
 - 64.2 an employee of the organisation.

Initial charity trustees

- 65 The individuals who signed the charity trustee declaration forms which accompanied the application for incorporation of the organisation shall be deemed to have been appointed by the members as charity trustees with effect from the date of incorporation of the organisation.

Election, retiral, re-election

- 66 At each AGM, the members may elect any member (unless he/she is debarred from membership under clause 64) to be a charity trustee.
- 67 The board may at any time appoint any member (unless he/she is debarred from membership under clause 64) to be a charity trustee. The normal term of office for a charity trustee will be three years. Unless otherwise extended by agreement of the board, charity trustees will not serve more than two terms.
- 68 At each AGM, all of the charity trustees elected/appointed under clauses 66 and 67 (and, in the case of the first AGM, those deemed to have been appointed under clause 65) shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-election under clause 66.
- 69 A charity trustee retiring at an AGM will be deemed to have been re-elected unless: -
- 69.1 he/she advises the board prior to the conclusion of the AGM that he/she does not wish to be re-appointed as a charity trustee; or
 - 69.2 an election process was held at the AGM and he/she was not among those elected/re-elected through that process; or

- 69.3 a resolution for the re-election of that charity trustee was put to the AGM and was not carried.

Appointment/re-appointment of co-opted charity trustees

- 70 In addition to their powers under clause 67, the board may at any time appoint any non-member of the organisation to be a charity trustee (subject to clause 61, and providing he/she is not debarred from membership under clause 64) on the basis that he/she has specialist experience and/or skills which could be of assistance to the board.
- 71 At each AGM, all of the charity trustees appointed under clause 70 shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-appointment under that clause.

Termination of office

- 72 A charity trustee will automatically cease to hold office if: -
- 72.1 he/she becomes disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005;
 - 72.2 he/she becomes incapable for medical reasons of carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee - but only if that has continued (or is expected to continue) for a period of more than six months;
 - 72.3 (in the case of a charity trustee elected/appointed under clauses 65 to 69) he/she ceases to be a member of the organisation;
 - 72.4 he/she becomes an employee of the organisation;
 - 72.5 he/she gives the organisation a notice of resignation, signed by him/her;
 - 72.6 he/she is absent (without good reason, in the opinion of the board) from more than three consecutive meetings of the board - but only if the board resolves to remove him/her from office;
 - 72.7 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have committed a material breach of the code of conduct for charity trustees (as referred to in clause 89);
 - 72.8 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have been in serious or persistent breach of his/her duties under section 66(1) or (2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or
 - 72.9 he/she is removed from office by a resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting.
 - 72.10 he/she has served three full terms as described in clause 67.
- 73 A resolution under paragraph 72.7, 72.8 or 72.9 shall be valid only if: -

- 73.1 the charity trustee who is the subject of the resolution is given reasonable prior written notice of the grounds upon which the resolution for his/her removal is to be proposed;
- 73.2 the charity trustee concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and
- 73.3 (in the case of a resolution under paragraph 72.7 or 72.8) at least two thirds (to the nearest round number) of the charity trustees then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of charity trustees

- 74 The board must keep a register of charity trustees, setting out
 - 74.1 for each current charity trustee:
 - 74.1.1 his/her full name and address;
 - 74.1.2 the date on which he/she was appointed as a charity trustee; and
 - 74.1.3 any office held by him/her in the organisation;
 - 74.2 for each former charity trustee - for at least 6 years from the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee:
 - 74.2.1 the name of the charity trustee;
 - 74.2.2 any office held by him/her in the organisation; and
 - 74.2.3 the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee.
- 75 The board must ensure that the register of charity trustees is updated within 28 days of any change:
 - 75.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
 - 75.2 which is notified to the organisation.
- 76 If any person requests a copy of the register of charity trustees, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a person who is not a charity trustee of the organisation, the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out - if the SCIO is satisfied that including that information is likely to jeopardise the safety or security of any person or premises.

Office-bearers

- 77 The charity trustees must elect (from among themselves) a Chair, a Treasurer and a Secretary.

- 78 In addition to the office-bearers required under clause 77, the charity trustees may elect (from among themselves) further office-bearers if they consider that appropriate.
- 79 All of the office-bearers will cease to hold office at the conclusion of each AGM, but may then be re-elected under clause 77 or 78.
- 80 A person elected to any office will automatically cease to hold that office: -
- 80.1 if he/she ceases to be a charity trustee; or
- 80.2 if he/she gives to the organisation a notice of resignation from that office, signed by him/her.

Powers of board

- 81 Except where this constitution states otherwise, the organisation (and its assets and operations) will be managed by the board; and the board may exercise all the powers of the organisation.
- 82 A meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.
- 83 The members may, by way of a resolution passed in compliance with clause 50 (requirement for two-thirds majority), direct the board to take any particular step or direct the board not to take any particular step; and the board shall give effect to any such direction accordingly.

Charity trustees - general duties

- 84 Each of the charity trustees has a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the organisation; and, in particular, must:-
- 84.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the organisation acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;
- 84.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
- 84.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the organisation and any other party:
- 84.3.1 put the interests of the organisation before that of the other party;
- 84.3.2 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the organisation and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other charity trustees with regard to the matter in question;
- 84.4 ensure that the organisation complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

- 85 In addition to the duties outlined in clause 84, all of the charity trustees must take such steps as are reasonably practicable for the purpose of ensuring: -
- 85.1 that any breach of any of those duties by a charity trustee is corrected by the charity trustee concerned and not repeated; and
 - 85.2 that any trustee who has been in serious and persistent breach of those duties is removed as a trustee.
- 86 Provided he/she has declared his/her interest - and has not voted on the question of whether or not the organisation should enter into the arrangement - a charity trustee will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the organisation in which he/she has a personal interest; and (subject to clause 87 and to the provisions relating to remuneration for services contained in the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005), he/she may retain any personal benefit which arises from that arrangement.
- 87 No charity trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the organisation; and no charity trustee may be given any remuneration by the organisation for carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee.
- 88 The charity trustees may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with carrying out their duties; this may include expenses relating to their attendance at meetings.

Code of conduct for charity trustees

- 89 Each of the charity trustees shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board from time to time.
- 90 The code of conduct referred to in clause 89 shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of charity trustees contained in this constitution and the duties imposed on charity trustees under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and all relevant provisions of this constitution shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time

DECISION-MAKING BY THE CHARITY TRUSTEES

Notice of board meetings

- 91 Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the board or ask the secretary to call a meeting of the board.
- 92 At least 7 days' notice must be given of each board meeting, unless (in the opinion of the person calling the meeting) there is a degree of urgency which makes that inappropriate.

- 93 If charity trustees are to be permitted to participate in a board meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s), the charity trustees must, in advance of the meeting, be provided with details of how to connect and participate via that link or links; and (particularly for the benefit of those charity trustees who may have difficulties in using a computer or laptop for this purpose) the charity trustees' attention should be drawn to the following options:
- 93.1 participating in the meeting via an audio link accessed by phone, using dial-in details (if that forms part of the arrangements);
 - 93.2 (where attendance in person is to be permitted, either on an open basis or subject to a restriction on the total number who will be permitted to attend) the ability to attend the meeting in person;
 - 93.3 appointing another trustee as proxy for the purposes of voting at the meeting.

Procedure at board meetings

- 94 A board meeting cannot start unless a quorum of trustees is present in person. A quorum is a majority of charity trustees. For example, if there are 4 trustees, 3 of them must be present to form a quorum; if there are 8 trustees, 5 of them must be present to form a quorum.
- 95 An individual participating in a board meeting via an audio or audio-visual link which allows them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting will be deemed to be present in person (or, if they are not a charity trustee, will be deemed to be in attendance) at the meeting.
- 96 If at any time the number of charity trustees in office falls below the number stated as the quorum in clause 94, the remaining charity trustee(s) will have power to fill the vacancies or call a members' meeting - but will not be able to take any other valid decisions.
- 97 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each board meeting.
- 98 If the chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 99 Every charity trustee has one vote, which must be given personally (subject to clause 112).
- 100 A trustee's votes may also be cast through one other trustee acting as proxy on their behalf.
- 101 In any vote, the chairperson of the meeting will be responsible for there being in place measures to ensure that every person voting casts the number of votes commensurate with the number of votes they hold at the meeting, whether these be personal or proxy.

- 102 A trustee who wishes to appoint another trustee as proxy to vote on his/her behalf at any meeting must lodge with the Secretary a written proxy instruction in advance of the meeting. The format of this instruction must be as specified by the Secretary.
- 103 Trustees casting their votes by proxy must clearly indicate their voting preference regarding each agenda item in the proxy instruction. The trustee acting as proxy must cast those votes strictly in accordance with the preference of the trustee who nominated them for the meeting.
- 104 Any trustee acting as proxy may hold an unlimited number of proxy votes that have been duly authorized. They may also exercise their own vote.
- 105 A trustee who has appointed another trustee as proxy may attend the meeting at which their proxy vote is to be cast but may not cast a vote at the meeting in person.
- 106 A trustee who has appointed another trustee as proxy to vote at a meeting may withdraw their proxy instruction in writing at any time prior to the start of the meeting and may then vote in person at that meeting.
- 107 All decisions at board meetings will be made by majority vote.
- 108 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 109 The board may if they consider appropriate (and must, if this is required under article 110), allow charity trustees to participate in board meetings by way of an audio and/or audio-visual link or links which allow them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting, providing:
- 109.1 the means by which charity trustees can participate via that link or links are not subject to technical complexities, significant costs or other factors which are likely to represent - for all, or a significant proportion, of the charity trustees - a barrier to participation; and
- 109.2 the manner in which the meeting is conducted ensures, so far as reasonably possible, that those charity trustees who participate via an audio or audio-visual link are not disadvantaged with regard to their ability to contribute to discussions at the meeting, as compared with those charity trustees (if any) who are attending in person (and vice versa).
- 110 If restrictions arising from public health legislation, directions or guidance are likely to mean that attendance in person at a proposed board meeting would not be possible or advisable for one or more of the charity trustees, the board must make arrangements for charity trustees to participate in that board meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s); and on the basis that:
- 110.1 the requirements set out in clause 109 will apply; and
- 110.2 the board must use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that all charity trustees have access to one or more means by which they may hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting.

- 111 A board meeting may involve two or more charity trustees participating via attendance in person while other charity trustees participate via audio and/or audio-visual links; or it may involve participation solely via audio and/or audio-visual links.
- 112 Where a charity trustee or charity trustees are participating in a board meeting via an audio or audio-visual link, they may cast their vote on any resolution orally, or by way of some form of visual indication, or by use of a voting button or similar, or by way of a message sent electronically.
- 113 References in clauses 109 to 112 to trustees should be taken to include proxies for trustees.
- 114 The board may, at its discretion, allow any person to attend (whether in person or by way of an audio or audio-visual link) and speak at a board meeting notwithstanding that he/she is not a charity trustee - but on the basis that he/she must not participate in decision-making.
- 115 A charity trustee must not vote at a board meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution which relates to a matter in which he/she has a personal interest or duty which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the organisation; he/she must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.
- 116 For the purposes of clause 115: -
- 116.1 an interest held by an individual who is “connected” with the charity trustee under section 68(2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister etc) shall be deemed to be held by that charity trustee;
- 116.2 a charity trustee will be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which he/she is an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has an interest in that matter.
- 117 The principles set out in clause 56 (technical objections to remote participation) shall apply in relation to remote participation and voting at board meetings, as if each reference in that clause to a member were a reference to a charity trustee and each reference in that clause to a members’ meeting were a reference to a board meeting.

Written resolutions by charity trustees

- 118 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by a majority of the charity trustees then in office shall (subject to clauses 119 and 120) be as valid as if duly passed at a board meeting.
- 119 A resolution under clause 118 shall not be valid unless a copy of the resolution was circulated to all of the charity trustees, along with a cut-off time (which must be reasonable in the circumstances) for notifications under clause 120.

- 120 If a resolution is circulated to the charity trustees under clause 119, any one or more charity trustees may, following receipt of a copy of the resolution, notify the secretary that they consider that a board meeting should be held to discuss the matter which is the subject of the resolution; and if any such notification is received by the secretary prior to the cut-off time:
- 120.1 the Secretary must convene a board meeting accordingly, and on the basis that it will take place as soon as reasonably possible;
- 120.2 the resolution cannot be treated as valid under clause 118 unless and until that board meeting has taken place;
- 120.3 the board may (if they consider appropriate, on the basis of the discussions at the meeting) resolve at that board meeting that the resolution should be treated as invalid, notwithstanding that it had previously been agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by a majority of the charity trustees then in office.

Minutes

- 121 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all board meetings and meetings of sub-committees.
- 122 The minutes to be kept under clause 121 must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 123 The board shall (subject to clause 124) make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 113 to any member of the public requesting them.
- 124 The board may exclude from any copy minutes made available to a member of the public under clause 123 any material which the board considers ought properly to be kept confidential - on the grounds that allowing access to such material could cause significant prejudice to the interests of the organisation or on the basis that the material contains reference to employee or other matters which it would be inappropriate to divulge.

ADMINISTRATION

Delegation to sub-committees

- 125 The board may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees; a sub-committee must include at least one charity trustee, but other members of a sub-committee need not be charity trustees.
- 126 The board may also delegate to the chair of the organisation (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.
- 127 When delegating powers under clause 125 or 126, the board must set out appropriate conditions (which must include an obligation to report regularly to the board).

- 128 Any delegation of powers under clause 125 or 126 may be revoked or altered by the board at any time.
- 129 The rules of procedure for each sub-committee, and the provisions relating to membership of each sub-committee, shall be set by the board.

Operation of accounts

- 130 Subject to clause 131, the signatures of two out of three signatories appointed by the board will be required in relation to all operations (other than the lodging of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the organisation; at least one out of the two signatures must be the signature of a charity trustee.
- 131 Where the organisation uses electronic facilities for the operation of any bank or building society account, the authorisations required for operations on that account must be consistent with the approach reflected in clause 130. A single signatory can make an electronic transaction, however a representative receipt must be signed by two signatories as detailed in clause 130.

Accounting records and annual accounts

- 132 The board must ensure that proper accounting records are kept, in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 133 The board must prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions (or if the board consider that an audit would be appropriate for some other reason), the board should ensure that an audit of the accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.

MISCELLANEOUS

Winding-up

- 134 If the organisation is to be wound up or dissolved, the winding-up or dissolution process will be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
- 135 Any surplus assets available to the organisation immediately preceding its winding up or dissolution must be used for purposes which are the same as - or which closely resemble - the purposes of the organisation as set out in this constitution.

Alterations to the constitution

- 136 This constitution may (subject to clause 137) be altered by resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting (subject to achieving the two thirds majority referred to in clause 50) or by way of a written resolution of the members.

- 137 The Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 prohibits taking certain steps (eg change of name, an alteration to the purposes, amalgamation, winding-up) without the consent of the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR).

Interpretation

- 138 References in this constitution to the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 should be taken to include: -

138.1 any statutory provision which adds to, modifies or replaces that Act; and 138.2 any statutory instrument issued in pursuance of that Act or in pursuance of any statutory provision falling under paragraph 130.1 above.

- 139 In this constitution: -

139.1 “charity” means a body which is either a “Scottish charity” within the meaning of section 13 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 or a “charity” within the meaning of section 1 of the Charities Act 2011, providing (in either case) that its objects are limited to charitable purposes;

139.2 “charitable purpose” means a charitable purpose under section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 which is also regarded as a charitable purpose in relation to the application of the Taxes Acts.
